OUR WISCONSIN HERO...

Tom Schiltz
Founder of St. Joseph
Food Program

Tom Schiltz was surprised when Wisconsin's first lady Tonette Walker presented him with the Wisconsin Heroes Award this past January. As the founder of St. Joseph Food Program, the Governor's Office recognized the wonderful contribution Tom has made to the Fox Valley community. Tom is a hero to the thousands of individuals who have walked through the doors of St. Joe's. Thirty one years ago, Tom believed in the good of his fellow man. For his efforts to pull our community together to help neighbors in need, Tom Schiltz is the recipient of the January 2013 Wisconsin Heroes Award. Modest about this recognition Tom is quick to recognize the communities' dedication to assist its own residents through acts of generosity and commitment.

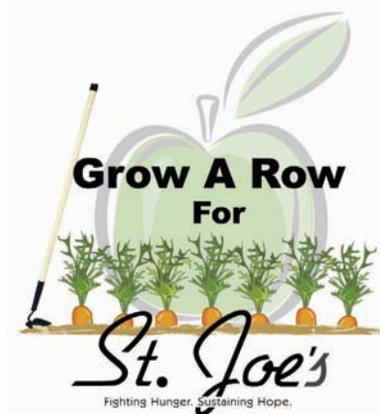

GROW A ROW FOR ST. JOE'S

PLANT, GROW, HARVEST AND DONATE TO ST. JOE'S!

During World War II they were called "Victory Gardens". Citizens were encouraged to plant these gardens to provide their own fruits and vegetables. Nearly 20 million Americans answered the call. They planted gardens in backyards, empty lots and even city rooftops. Neighbors pooled their resources, planted different kinds of foods and formed cooperatives, all in the name of patriotism.

The result of victory gardening? The U.S. Department of Agriculture estimates that more than 20 million victory gardens were planted. Fruit and vegetables harvested in these home and community plots was estimated to be 9-10 million tons, an amount equal to all commercial production of fresh vegetables. The program made a difference. And YOU can make a difference too by growing and donating fresh produce to St. Joe's. Eating healthy can be expensive. By donating fresh produce from your garden, you will be helping families of our program have healthier food options.

Just like the Victory Garden, Grow a Row for St. Joe's is a way for individuals in this community to do their part on the home front. The process of nurturing a garden and donating the fruits of your effort is a great way for families and young people to get involved and be a part of the effort! Dig in and Grow a Row for St. Joe's!

IN MEMORY OF...

Jim Asmuth, co-founder of St. Joseph Food Program, passed away this past January. Jim played a significant role in establishing St. Joe's over 31 years ago. "I believe that without Jim, the program might have ceased, or at least would not have become the program it is today," said Tom Schiltz founder of St. Joseph Food Program, Inc. Tom described one of his last visits with Jim before he passed away. "He told me that the program was exactly what he was looking for in his retirement at that time. As I worked with Jim over the years, I found out what a super great person he was. I can't find words to adequately describe the admiration and love I have for that beautiful human being. To say I miss him would be a tremendous understatement." ~ Tom Schiltz

25-YEAR VOLUNTEER ANNIVERSARIES

St. Joseph Food Program is fortunate to have dedicated, long term volunteers. Nothing says dedication like 25 years! We are humbled by the commitment and generous gift of time all of our volunteers give to our program. Without this dedication we could not provide the high level of service we do today.

Congratulations!

Mike and Mary Gage

"Mary and I became involved simply because we knew Tom Schiltz as a friend. He was a great example of someone driven by faith to work at sharing our collective abundance more justly. And it was fun driving the truck around, getting to know our co-workers better and feeling like we were part of a community that cared. Each of our children and some of our friends have also worked on the truck. It's an activity we all enjoy. Together, we have been inspired to see the many volunteer hands that make this organization work so well as well as the generosity of all the donors."

~ Mike and Mary Gage

Bob and Jean Swayne

Bob and his wife Jean started volunteering for St. Joe's while Bob was working for AAL. Once he retired in 1988, Bob and Jean both continued volunteering. Bob has worn many hats at St. Joe's but has run the scale for the past 15 years. "This was a call from God to serve him by serving others. Food is a blessing that God put on this Earth for all to receive."

~ Bob and Jean Swayne

Andi Miller

Starting in the basement of St. Joe's parish, Andi Miller has seen a lot of changes and growth over the years at St. Joe's. Andi has made many friends and enjoys the camaraderie of working with people who come each week and share a smile or a kind word to the families who come to St. Joe's for their food needs. Andi has primarily worked in produce.

Gene Beauchaine

Gene started 25 years ago as a driver on the Tuesday North truck. When the staff and board discovered that he was also a truck expert, they were thrilled to be able to turn over the vehicle maintenance to him. Gene makes sure our vehicles receive regular maintenance, does small repairs, and has been involved in the purchase of every truck the Program has purchased in the last 25 years. In 2007 Gene stopped driving the truck for St. Joe's so that he could take care of his wife and best friend, Elizabeth (Betty) at home. Since Betty's death in April 2010, Gene has continued his efforts in keeping our trucks on the road.

LOCAL VENDOR SPOTLIGHT

St. Joe's enjoys the support of many local vendors. We serve the local community, and the local community supports us. This edition spotlights Festival Foods.

Festival Foods operates 17 grocery stores throughout Wisconsin. Their high standards and servant-leadership culture set them apart from many other businesses. "We are not simply selling groceries; we are on a mission to positively impact the lives of those we come in contact with every day. Our vision statement sums it up" said Mark Skogen, President and CEO of Festival Foods:

"Festival Foods will be Wisconsin's leading and most innovation grocer. We will consistently deliver the best shopping experience, be the best place to work, and make a positive impact in the communities we serve."

Festival Foods commitment to the community is reflected through their generous charitable giving and fundraising programs, such as Food For Neighbors, which has raised $750,000 for local food pantries including St. Joe's. Festival Foods is committed to exemplifying ethical standards by serving their associates, business partners and communities, and enriching the lives of the people and places where we live and work.

MEET OUR NEW VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR!

Betsy Wojcik
Volunteer Coordinator

Betsy is a native to Wisconsin. After graduating from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a B.A. in International Studies, Betsy became a park ranger for the National Park Service and worked at both Guadalupe Mountains National Park and Olympic National Park. Betsy and her husband happily moved back to Wisconsin to be closer to family and now live in Winchester on 7 acres and hope to get chickens in the spring. Betsy started out as a volunteer for St. Joe's and is now our Volunteer Coordinator. Betsy enjoys reading, baking, biking, and hanging out with her dog, Kolby.

REFRIGERATED TRUCK

Because of the generosity of a $10,000 grant from the Grainger Foundation and an anonymous $25,000 donation, St. Joseph Food Program now has a refrigerated truck. This truck is a tremendous donation to the program and will create many opportunities for additional donations that otherwise could not be utilized.

RESULTS FROM 2012 ANNUAL FUND DRIVE

Our 2012 annual fund drive raised $331,575. This money goes directly to the food needs of our client families. Milk, eggs, fresh produce and staple items occupy our food budget. Thank you for your donation and continued support. Most importantly, thank you for providing hope to so many families who rely on St. Joe's for their food needs!.
